

Web Demo & Topics

Grade 1 – Geography

1) North is the direction toward the North Pole.
South is the direction toward the South Pole.

- A) What direction is opposite of east?
- B) What direction is opposite of south?

2) Some land is flat. A plain is flat land.

Some land is higher than a plain but nor as high as a mountain.

This land is called a hill.

Some land is very high. A mountain is vary high.

Write the number that answers the questions below.

- A) What is number 2?
- B) What is number 1?
- C) What is number 3?

3) The map shows North America.
North America is a continent.

A)

- B) What country is north of the United States?
- C) What country is south of the United States?
- D) What ocean is West of North America?
- E) What ocean is East of North America?

Geography - Grade 1 - Topics

Aerial Views - Identifying Objects

Continents

Directions

Landforms

Map Interpretation

Map Symbols

Map Words

Reading Map Keys